HSBC Insurance Aspects Terms and Conditions (the Terms)

These Terms apply to HSBC Insurance Aspects together with any additional terms and conditions we tell you apply.

No one else apart from you, us and any other person you jointly hold HSBC Insurance Aspects with, will have any rights under these Terms.

Glossary

“Account” means an HSBC Advance Bank Account with HSBC UK Bank plc.

“Terms” means the HSBC Insurance Aspects Terms and Conditions.

“UK” means the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

“We”, “us”, or “our” means HSBC UK Bank plc.

“You” or “your” means the Account holder(s) who have HSBC Insurance Aspects.

1. HSBC Insurance Aspects eligibility requirements

The eligibility requirements for HSBC Insurance Aspects are set out above.

If you close your Account we will automatically close HSBC Insurance Aspects at the same time. We will deduct from your Account any HSBC Insurance Aspects monthly fee that we have already told you will be deducted.

If you tell us that you are moving outside of the UK we will close HSBC Insurance Aspects from your date of departure. We will deduct from your Account any HSBC Insurance Aspects monthly fee that we have already told you will be deducted.

2. HSBC Insurance Aspects benefits

HSBC Insurance Aspects consists of three insurance policies (two if you are aged 70 or over) as set out above. Further terms and conditions apply to the individual insurance policies and these have been provided within your pre-notification pack. Further copies are also available upon request by calling 03457 404 404.
3. Making changes
We can make changes to our charges, the HSBC Insurance Aspects eligibility requirements and benefits and these Terms.

3.1 When we can make changes
We can make these changes at any time if we reasonably believe that the change is to your advantage or is needed for any one or more of the following reasons (which may relate to circumstances existing at the time or those which we reasonably expect to apply in the near future):
(a) to respond proportionately to changes in general law or decisions of the Financial Ombudsman Service;
(b) to meet our regulatory requirements;
(c) to reflect new industry guidance and codes of practice or good banking practice;
(d) to respond to the making of a relevant recommendation, requirement or decision of any court, ombudsman or regulator;
(e) to allow us to make reasonable changes to the way in which we manage HSBC Insurance Aspects as a result of changes to technology or the systems we use, including introducing new services or facilities or replacing an existing service or facility with a new one;
(f) to proportionately reflect legitimate increases or reductions in the costs of providing HSBC Insurance Aspects (including our funding costs); and
(g) for any commercial reason.
We can also make changes for any other valid reason.

3.2 Changes to the HSBC Insurance Aspects eligibility criteria, fees, benefits and other terms
If the change is unfavourable to you we will tell you personally at least 30 days in advance. If the change is favourable to you, we will tell you within 30 days.

3.3 What you can do if you do not like a change we have made
If we provide you with notice that we are going to make a change to the Terms, you can close HSBC Insurance Aspects before that change takes effect without charge. However we will deduct from your Account any HSBC Insurance Aspects monthly fee that we have already told you will be deducted. If you do not tell us that you want to close HSBC Insurance Aspects, then we will assume you have accepted the change and it will take effect automatically.

3.4 Other changes
In addition to the above, we can also make any change so long as we give you advance notice and you are able to close HSBC Insurance Aspects before the change takes effect without charge. However we will deduct from your Account any HSBC Insurance Aspects monthly fee that we have already told you will be deducted.
We need this flexibility to change because we need to be able to manage how we provide HSBC Insurance Aspects over a long period of time and it is very difficult for us to anticipate all the circumstances when we might need to change the way the service works. If you do not like any change we make in this way, you have the right to close HSBC Insurance Aspects.

We will deduct from your Account any HSBC Insurance Aspects monthly fee that we have already told you will be deducted.

4.2 When we can close HSBC Insurance Aspects
We can close HSBC Insurance Aspects immediately if, at any time,
• you are, or we reasonably suspect you may be acting fraudulently; or
• you were not entitled to open your Account or take out HSBC Insurance Aspects; or
• we reasonably consider that by continuing this contract we may break a law, regulation, code, court order or other duty; or we, or another HSBC Group company, may be exposed to action or censure from any government, regulator or law enforcement agency; or
• you no longer hold an Account; or

We will tell you we have done this straight away.
We can close HSBC Insurance Aspects for any other reason and at any time by giving you at least 30 days personal notice.

We can transfer all of our rights in relation to HSBC Insurance Aspects to someone else. We can transfer all of our obligations in relation to HSBC Insurance Aspects but only to someone we reasonably consider capable of performing them equally as well as us and who is authorised or recognised by our regulator. This will not reduce any of your rights in relation to HSBC Insurance Aspects.

You cannot transfer any of your rights and obligations in relation to HSBC Insurance Aspects, or HSBC Insurance Aspects itself, to anyone else.
