What is a trust?

A trust is simply a way in which a person gives assets to another person to look after for the benefit of, usually, someone else. It allows the intended beneficiary to benefit from those assets without also giving that person control of them. The asset in this case is a life policy but it could be almost anything.

Setting up a trust

A trust is usually set up by a written statement of what you are doing. Whatever is written in the instrument creating the trust, together with the general principles of trust law, governs who will look after the trust assets (in this case the policy), how they will do it and for whose benefit they will hold them.

The person who creates the trust will not usually be a beneficiary of it.

Explanatory Notes

The Explanatory Notes provided on the right hand side of the document should be read before the trust document is completed.

Explanatory Notes

Please insert full name(s) and address(es) of the Settlor(s). DO NOT USE INITIALS

These should be the owners as shown on the Policy Schedule or the person(s) applying for the new Policy. So if there are joint owners of the policy there will be two Settlers.

Put a line through these boxes if there is only one Settlor.

If the Policy is in existence:

The Settlor(s) is (are) the legal and beneficial owner(s) of the policy(ies) of assurance specified in Schedule C below ("the Original Policy(ies)") which the Settlor(s) wish(es) to hold as Trustee(s) in accordance with the trusts set out below.

AND/OR (as appropriate)

If the Policy is being applied for:

The Settlor(s) has(have) submitted a proposal to the Company for a policy of assurance specified in Schedule C below ("the Original Policy(ies)") and the Settlor hereby requests and directs that the Company shall issue the Policy to the Settlor(s) as Trustee(s) to be held in accordance with the trusts set out below.

Trust Terms:

The Trustee or Trustees for the time being ("the Trustees") shall hold the Policy as defined in Trustee Powers and Provisions 1(e) and all monies which may become payable under the terms thereof and investments for the time being representing such monies and all monies, rights, opportunities, property and/or assets which may be exercised, become payable or may be received by reason of or in respect of the Policy ("the Trust Fund") and the income thereof upon the following trusts:

A. Retained Benefits Fund

The Retained Benefits Fund as defined in Trustee Powers and Provisions 1(g) and the income thereof shall be held upon trust for the absolute and indefeasible benefit of the Settlor (or if the Settlor is two persons for the benefit of that Settlor in respect of whose illness or disability the benefit is payable).

B. Gifted Benefits Fund

I The Gifted Benefits Fund as defined in Trustee Powers and Provisions 1(i) shall be held upon trust for the Beneficiaries as defined in Trustee Powers and Provisions 1(b) or any one or more of them to the exclusion of the other or others in such manner in such shares and upon such trusts and with such powers (including protective or discretionary trusts and powers exercisable from time to time at the discretion of the Trustees or any other person) for their benefit as the Appointor as defined in Trustee Powers and Provisions 1(a) may appoint revocably or irrevocably during the Trust Period as defined in Trustee Powers and Provisions 1(k). Provided that any appointment made by the Appointor who is a Settlor shall not be valid unless notified in writing to the Trustees.

Explanatory Notes

The Critical Illness/Children's Critical Illness Benefits under the policy are held absolutely for the Settlor. The Terminal Illness Benefits are held absolutely for the Settlor if there is also a Critical Illness Benefit

The Trustees hold the Gifted Benefits Fund (subject to the Appointor's power of appointment) for the Named Beneficiaries. If there is no Critical Illness Benefit then the Terminal Illness Benefit will be held as part of the Gifted Benefits Fund.

The Appointor(s) has(ve) complete control over the choice of beneficiary.

II Subject to and in default of any appointment made under Clause B.I. of these Trust Terms above and to the extent that any such appointment shall fail or not extend for any reason the Trustees shall hold the Gifted Benefits Fund and the income thereof absolutely for the Named Beneficiaries in the shares specified in Schedule B and if there is more than one Named Beneficiary and no shares are specified then in equal shares absolutely. If the shares so specified do not total 100% the excess to be shared proportionately between the Named Beneficiaries and similarly reduced proportionately where the allocated percentages exceed 100%.

If the power of appointment is not exercised during the Trust Period then the named beneficiaries in schedule B will benefit. The Named Beneficiaries will be entitled to any income from the trust.
