Home, Possessions and Student Insurance

Important Information

HSBC UK
Explaining HSBC's service

As an insurance intermediary HSBC UK Bank plc deals exclusively with Aviva for the purposes of your policy.

Aviva will deal with the administration of your insurance (including claims, other than Home Emergency Cover where the administration of claims will be handled on behalf of Aviva by Homeserve Membership Limited and Legal Expenses Cover where the administration of claims will be handled by Arc Legal Assistance Limited).

Please note that Home Emergency Cover and Legal Expenses Cover are not available on Student and Possessions policies.

You will not receive advice or recommendation from HSBC UK Bank plc on this arrangement. No fee has been charged by HSBC UK Bank plc for arranging this contract.

HSBC receives a commission from Aviva in relation to any insurance policy we arrange, which means that a percentage of the premium you pay is given to HSBC. In addition to this we may also receive additional commission dependent on the performance of our insurance business with Aviva.

HSBC UK Bank plc is registered in England number 9928412. Registered Office: 1 Centenary Square, Birmingham, B1 1HQ.

Other Important Information About Your Policy

Important Notice – Information we need to know about

You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions the insurer asks. Please read any assumptions carefully and confirm if they apply to your circumstances.

If any of the information provided by you changes after you purchase your policy and during the period of your policy please provide the insurer with details.

If the information provided by you is not complete and accurate:

- the insurer may cancel your policy and refuse to pay any claim, or
- the insurer may not pay any claim in full, or
- the insurer may revise the premium and/or change any excess, or
- the extent of the cover may be affected.

HSBC and the insurer recommend you keep a record (including copies of letters) of all information provided to the insurer for your future reference.

Renewing your insurance

We will contact you in writing at least 21 days before your renewal date and will either:

1. give you an opportunity to renew your insurance for a further year and tell you:
   - about any changes we are making to the terms and conditions of your policy;
   - to review your circumstances and consider whether this insurance continues to meet your needs;
   - to check that the information you have provided us with is still correct, and tell us if anything has changed; and
   - the price for the next year.

If you wish to make any changes at renewal, please contact call Customer Services on 0345 300 5898.

Or

2. let you know that we are unable to renew your insurance. Reasons why this may happen include but are not limited to the following:
   - when the product is no longer available; or
   - when we are no longer prepared to offer you insurance for reasons such as: we reasonably suspect fraud;

About your policy

We will notify you in writing at least 21 days before your renewal date that the policy will automatically be renewed and the renewal premium will be collected from your specified bank account.

We will not automatically renew your policy if:

- you have contacted us to cancel your insurance.
1. Give you an opportunity to renew your insurance for a further year and tell you:
   ● about any changes we are making to the terms and conditions of your policy;
   ● to review your circumstances and consider whether this insurance continues to meet your needs;
   ● to check that the information you have provided us with is still correct, and tell us if anything has changed; and
   ● the price for the next year.

If you wish to make any changes at renewal, please contact Customer Services on 0345 300 5898.

2. Let you know that we are unable to renew your insurance. Reasons why this may happen include but are not limited to the following:
   ● when the product is no longer available; or
   ● when we are no longer prepared to offer you insurance for reasons such as:
     – we reasonably suspect fraud;
     – your claims history;
     – we have changed our acceptance criteria;
     – you are no longer eligible for cover; and/or
     – where you have not taken reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions we ask. See the “Important Notice - Information and changes we need to know about” section within this document.

A cooling off period (14 days from renewal of the contract or the day on which you receive your renewal documentation, whichever is the later) applies at the renewal of your insurance. Please read “Your cancellation rights” in your policy booklet which explains how this works.

Automatic renewal of your policy

Where we have offered you renewal terms and you select or have selected a continuous premium payment method, you will be notified in writing at least 21 days before your renewal date that the policy will automatically be renewed and the renewal premium will again be collected from your specified bank account.

We will not automatically renew your policy if:
   ● you have contacted us to cancel your continuous payment authority since you purchased the policy or your last renewal; or
   ● we no longer offer you the continuous payment method if, for example, you have a poor payment history or an adverse credit history.

If either of the above happens we will advise you of this in your renewal letter and you will need to contact us to make payment before we can renew your policy.

Use of Language

Unless otherwise agreed, the contractual terms and conditions and other information relating to this contract will be in English.

Aviva Privacy Notice
In this section “we”, “us” or “our” means Aviva Insurance Limited.

This notice explains the most important aspects of how Aviva use your information but you can get more information about the terms used and view the full privacy policy at: www.aviva.co.uk/privacypolicy or request a copy by writing to: Aviva, Freepost, Mailing Exclusion Team, Unit 5, Wanlip Road Ind Est, Syston, Leicester, LE7 1PD.

Personal information Aviva collects and how we will use it
Aviva will use your personal information: -

- to provide you with insurance: we need this to decide if we can offer insurance to you and if so on what terms and also to administer your policy, handle any claims and manage any renewal,

- to support legitimate interests that we have as a business: we need this to manage arrangements we have with reinsurers, for the detection and prevention of fraud and to help us better understand our customers and improve our customer analytics and profiling,

- to meet any applicable legal or regulatory obligations: we need this to meet compliance requirements with our regulators (e.g. Financial Conduct Authority), to comply with law enforcement and to manage legal claims; and

- to carry out other activities that are in the public interest: for example, we may need to use personal information to carry out anti-money laundering checks.

As well as collecting personal information about you, Aviva may also use personal information about other people, for example family members you wish to insure on a policy. If you are providing information about another person Aviva expect you to ensure that we know you are doing so and are content with their information being provided to them. You might find it helpful to show them this privacy notice and if we have any concerns please contact Aviva in one of the ways described below.

The personal information we collect and use will include name, address, date of birth, and financial information. If a claim is made Aviva will also collect personal information about the claim from you and any relevant third parties. We may also need to ask for details relating to the health or any unspent offences or criminal convictions of you or somebody else covered under your policy. We recognise that information about health and offences or criminal convictions is particularly sensitive information. Where appropriate, we will ask for consent to collect and use this information.
If Aviva need your consent to use personal information, we will make this clear to you when you complete an application or submit a claim. If you give Aviva consent to using personal information, you are free to withdraw this at any time by contacting them in one of the ways described below. Please note that if consent to use information is withdrawn we may not be able to continue to provide the policy or process claims and we may need to cancel the policy.

Of course, you don’t have to provide us with any personal information, but if you don’t provide the information we need we may not be able to proceed with your application or any claim you make.

Some of the information we collect as part of this application may be provided to us by a third party including HSBC UK Bank plc. This may include information already held about you within the Aviva group, including details from previous quotes and claims, information obtained from publicly available records, Aviva’s trusted third parties and from industry databases, including fraud prevention agencies and databases.

Credit Reference Agency Searches
To ensure the Insurer has the necessary facts to assess your insurance risk, verify your identity, help prevent fraud and provide you with our best premium and payment options, the Insurer may need to obtain information relating to you at quotation, renewal and in certain circumstances where policy amendments are requested. The Insurer or its agents may undertake checks against publicly available information (such as electoral roll, country court judgments, bankruptcy orders or repossessions(s). Similar checks may be made when assessing claims.

The identity of our Credit Reference Agency and the ways in which they use and share personal information, are explained in more detail at www.callcredit.co.uk/crain

Automated decision making
We carry out automated decision making to decide whether we can provide insurance to you and on what terms. In particular, we use an automated underwriting engine to process the personal information you provide as part of this application process. This will include information such as your, age as well as details of your property including address and postcode. The automated engine may validate the information you provide against other records we hold about you in our systems and third-party databases, including public databases. We may also supplement the information you provide us with information from third parties who can provide more information about your property (for example through land registers and commercially available property databases).

We do this to calculate the insurance risk and how much the cover will cost you. Without this information we are unable to provide a price that is relevant to your individual circumstances and needs. We regularly check the way our underwriting engine works to ensure we are being fair to our customers. After the automatic decision has been made, you have the right to speak to someone who may review the decision and provide a more detailed explanation. If you wish to invoke this right please contact us at dataprt@aviva.com or call us on 0800 277 377.
How we share your personal information with others
Aviva may share your personal information: -

- With the Aviva group, our agents and third parties who provide services to us, HSBC UK Bank plc and other insurers (either directly or via those acting for the insurer such as loss adjusters or investigators) to help us administer our products and services;

- With regulatory bodies and law enforcement bodies, including the police, e.g. if we are required to do so to comply with a relevant legal or regulatory obligation;

- With other organisations including insurers, public bodies and the police (either directly or using shared databases) for fraud prevention and detection purposes;

- With reinsurers who provide reinsurance services to Aviva and for each other. Reinsurers will use your data to decide whether to provide reinsurance cover, assess and deal with reinsurance claims and to meet legal obligations. They will keep your data for the period necessary for these purposes and may need to disclose it to other companies within their group, their agents and third party service providers, law enforcement and regulatory bodies.

Some of the organisations Aviva share information with may be located outside of the European Economic Area (“EEA”). We will always take steps to ensure that any transfer of information outside of Europe is carefully managed to protect your privacy rights. For more information on this please see Aviva’s Privacy Policy or contact us in one of the ways described below.

How long we keep your personal information for
Aviva maintain a retention policy to ensure we only keep personal information for as long as we reasonably need it for the purposes explained in this notice. Aviva need to keep information for the period necessary to administer your insurance and deal with claims and queries on your policy. Aviva may also need to keep information after our relationship with you has ended, for example to ensure we have an accurate record in the event of any complaints or challenges, carry out relevant fraud checks, or where we are required to do so for legal, regulatory or tax purposes.

Your rights
You have various rights in relation to your personal information, including the right to request access to your personal information, correct any mistakes on our records, erase or restrict records where we are no longer required, object to use of personal information based on legitimate business interests, ask not to be subject to automated decision making if the decision produces legal or other significant effects on you, and data portability. For more details in relation to your rights, including how to exercise them, please see the full privacy policy for Aviva Insurance Limited, which can be obtained in the way described above.
Contacting us
If you have any questions about how Aviva use personal information, or if you want to exercise your rights stated above, please contact our Data Protection Officer by either emailing them at: DATAPRT@aviva.com or writing to them at Aviva, Level 4 Pitheavlis, Perth. PH2 0NH.

If you have a complaint or concern about how Aviva use your personal information, please contact us in the ways described above in the first instance and we will attempt to resolve the issue as soon as possible. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office at any time.

Fraud Prevention and Detection
In order to prevent and detect fraud we and the insurer may at any time:

- share information about you with other organisations and public bodies including the Police;
- undertake credit searches and additional fraud searches;
- check and/or file your details with fraud prevention agencies and databases, and if you give us false or inaccurate information we and the insurer will record this to prevent fraud and money laundering.

We and the insurer can supply on request further details of the agencies and databases we access or contribute to and how this information may be used. If you require further details contact:
Policy Investigation Unit, Aviva, Cruan Business Centre, Westerhill Business Park, 123 Westerhill Road, Bishopbriggs, Glasgow G64 2QR. Telephone 0345 300 0597. Email: PIUUKDI@AVIVA.COM

We the insurer and other organisations may also search these agencies and databases to:

- help make decisions about the provision and administration of insurance, credit and related services for you and members of your household;
- trace debtors or beneficiaries, recover debt, prevent fraud and to manage your accounts or insurance policies;
- check your identity to prevent money laundering, unless you furnish us with other satisfactory proof of identity;
- check details of job applicants and employees.

The Use of Third Party Information
In assessing your application now or at renewal, to prevent fraud, check your identity and to maintain our policy records, HSBC UK Bank plc and the insurers may:

- search publicly available files provided by credit reference agencies. The insurer may use a number of factors to provide you with a quote for your insurance including publicly available information such as electoral roll, County Court Judgments and bankruptcies which they obtain from credit reference agencies.
A record of this search will be visible to you if you request your credit report and also to any other organisation undertaking a search for the same purpose i.e. General Insurance related. This search will appear on your credit report as a “General Insurance (non-credit)” search. Each lender may have its own criteria in establishing how and whether any such search impacts its decision making process.

- use information relating to you and your home supplied to us by other third parties.

Claims History

- Under the conditions of your policy you must tell us about any insurance related incidents (such as fire, water damage, theft or an accident) whether or not they give rise to a claim. When you tell the insurer about an incident they will pass information relating to it to a database.

- The insurer may search these databases when you apply for insurance, in the event of any incident or claim, or at any time of renewal to validate your claims history or that of any other person or property likely to be involved in the policy or claim.

You should show these notices to anyone who has an interest in the property under the policy.

Legal Procedure

The law of England and Wales will apply to this contract unless:

1. you and the Insurer agree otherwise; or

2. at the date of the contract you are resident of Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, in which case (in the absence of agreement to the contrary) the law of that country will apply.

Telephone call charges and recording

Calls to 0800 numbers from UK landlines and mobiles are free. The cost of calls to 03 prefixed numbers are charged at national call rates (charges may vary dependent on your network provider) and are usually included in inclusive minute plans from landlines and mobiles. For our joint protection telephone calls may be recorded and/or monitored.

Aviva’s Regulatory Status

We are authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority. We are registered as Aviva Insurance Limited. Registered in Scotland, No. 2116. (Registered Office: Pitheavlis, Perth PH2 0NH) and our firm’s reference number is 202153. You may check this information and obtain further information about how the Financial Conduct Authority protect you by visiting www.fca.org.uk.
How do I make a complaint to Aviva?

We hope that you will be very happy with the service that we provide. However, if for any reason you are unhappy with it, we would like to hear from you. In the first instance, please contact us as follows:

- If your complaint is regarding this insurance please call the Aviva Customer Services helpline on 0345 300 5898
- If your complaint is regarding a claim please call the Claims helpline on 0345 300 5899

Aviva services falls within the scope of the Financial Ombudsman Service. If you have complained to us and we have been unable to resolve your complaint, you may be entitled to refer it to this independent body. Following the complaints procedure does not affect your right to take legal action. Please refer to your policy booklet for full details on the complaints procedure and postal addresses for written complaints.

If you have taken a product out with us online or by telephone, you can also use the European Commission's Online Dispute Resolution (http://ec.europa.eu/odr) service to make a complaint. The purpose of this platform is to identify a suitable Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) provider and we expect that this will be the Financial Ombudsman Service. Please be aware that the Financial Ombudsman Service will only be able to consider your complaint after we have had the opportunity to consider and resolve it.

Would I receive compensation if Aviva were unable to meet its liabilities?

Aviva are protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from this scheme if we cannot meet our obligations, depending on the type of insurance and the circumstances of your claim.
